

Carrie C. Adduci

Partner

Carrie C. Adduci, a Partner in our Real Estate Practice Group, concentrates on acquisitions, sales and refinances of commercial and residential properties. She also represents developers with regard to the sale of their newly constructed residential homes.

Prior to joining Certilman Balin, Ms. Adduci was a Real Estate Associate at a small Long Island law firm. In this position, she represented and advised purchasers, sellers, landlords and tenants in a variety of commercial and residential real estate transactions, including real property and co-operative apartments.

Ms. Adduci also co-taught a course in Applied Legal Analysis at her alma mater, St. John's University School of Law. She earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude in 2012 and her Bachelor of Science, summa cum laude, with a major in Legal Studies and a minor in Theology.

She served as Managing Editor of St. John's Law Review and Vice Co-Chair of the Public Interest Committee. As a student she helped her peers to strengthen their writing skills, as a consultant in the Writing Center.

St. John's Law School awarded Ms. Adduci with a Merit Based Scholarship, the ALI-ABA Scholarship and Leadership Award, and the St. John's Gold Pro Bono Service Award. She was also on the Dean's List.

During the summer of 2011, Ms. Adduci served as a Law Clerk at the Cook County Office of the Public Guardian in Chicago, Illinois. She was designated a guardian ad litem and attorney for children involved in protective proceedings in Cook County Juvenile Court.

Ms. Adduci was named to the 2022 and 2021 Rising Stars list of New York Metro Super Lawyers. She was also recognized with a Leadership in Law Award and as one of the "Who's Who in Professional Women" by Long Island Business News, as well as one of the "Rising Stars" by Real Estate Weekly.

She is admitted to practice in the state of New York and is a member of the Nassau County Bar Association and New York State Bar Association.
